

Cicely Barber is the owner and principle of Litigation Training Solutions LLC (LTS). Cicely has been involved in paralegal training and civil litigation for several years and licensed to practice law since 2000. Cicely has been a paralegal instructor at Emory University since the inception of its program in 2005. She has also taught at Clayton State University. Her teaching experience expanded when she accepted a position with Kaplan University to teach paralegals online in their School of Legal Studies. Cicely has taught Civil Litigation, Georgia Practices and Procedures, Federal Administrative Law, and Legal Research and Writing. Cicely earned an ABA approved paralegal certificate with a specialty in Civil Litigation prior to entering law school, so she offers a unique perspective to paralegals.

Cicely is a regularly featured speaker at paralegal conferences. She has taught the following seminars: Advanced Legal Writing, Drafting 101: Basic Pleading Writing for Paralegals, Cite Checking for Paralegals, Legal Writing for Paralegals: Are You Making Yourself Clear, and Paralegal 101.

Additionally, Cicely has gained extensive litigation experience through her position as staff attorney to a judge in the largest trial court in Georgia. As a staff attorney, Cicely managed the judge's entire civil docket, consisting of hundreds of cases. She observed countless trials and other court proceedings in various cases including: personal injury, wrongful death, medical and legal malpractice, premises liability, contract disputes, and product liability actions. Many of these cases resulted in multi-million dollar verdicts. Cicely is skilled with pleadings beginning with the complaint all the way through to post-trial motions. Her tenure as a staff attorney has given Cicely a certain knowledge and expertise of civil litigation and practical litigation procedures few attorneys possess.

Cicely is a member of Georgia Association of Black Women Attorneys and Women & Minorities in the Profession Committee of the State Bar of Georgia. Cicely is also on the Board of Directors for Georgia Legal Services Program. She is a trained and registered mediator for the Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution and occasionally serves as a Guardian Ad Litem in child custody cases. Cicely is a cum laude graduate of both Spelman College and Thomas M. Cooley Law School.
